

2013 RIVER KING'S CHAMPIONSHIP WALLEYE TOURNAMENT

The Walleye Angler's Trail first ever NO Entry Fee, Catch, Photo, Release Tournament was held on Saturday June 8, 2013 on Pools 11, 12, 13 of the Mississippi River. The tournament known as the River King's Walleye Championship was sponsored by the Dubuque Diamond Jo Casino and highlighted the top 25 Teams of the previous 2012 WAT Tournament season.

The tournament was preceded by a rules/dinner meeting also held at the Diamond Jo and hosted by Miller Electric of Dubuque, Iowa.

On tournament day each of the competitors boats were inspected by the WAT Staff and each team was issued a blank sd card, Judge Ruler, Score Card & Length to Weight conversion chart. The teams were released in order by their 2012 Leader Board results. Each team was instructed to photograph each fish they caught and convert the length to weight from the chart, record the info on the score card & release the fish.

A total of 74 fish were caught, photographed, recorded and released during the tournament.

The Diamond Jo Casino provided the Mississippi Moon Bar and its elaborate stage for the WAT staff to prepare for the weigh-in show that was held between 5:00 PM & 7:00 PM. A special thanks to Ron & Jennifer Tigges and Mike Tilp of WebSavvy/Video Creations of Dubuque that assisted the WAT staff in reviewing the fish photos, preparing the slide show program and providing their camera expertise to our teams.

Tommy Skarlis was the emcee during the weigh-in show and as always provided a great show with his walleye wisdom, humor and keen knowledge of river walleye fishing.

The 2013 River King's Walleye Champions were Doug Schumacher & Jeremy Streif of Dubuque, Iowa weighing in a 6 fish limit totaling 29.84 lbs. with a 7.86 lb. tournament Big Fish taking home checks totaling $5,240.00.
